

Meet PGA Professional J.R. Ross

Bio & Achievements

J.R. began his pro golf career in 1984 after completing 2 years of college golf. J.R. has been a PGA member since 1989 and has studied the techniques of teaching under the finest PGA Professionals in the country.

- PGA Member 28 Years
- Director of Instruction Dogwood Golf Academy
- 10 years Head Golf Professional and Director of Golf Chateau Elan
- 12 Years Teaching Professional Windy Hill Golf Academy
- Junior Camp Director Nike Golf Learning Centers
- US Kids Golf Certified
- PGA Junior League Coach
- Former First Tee Instructor
- Has given over 15,000 lessons to players of all abilities
- Former Co Host of Golf Fore Georgia Radio 1160AM
- Member of PGA President's Council on Growing the Game
- Competes in Georgia PGA events
- Certified Ping and Mizuno Club Fitter
- Nominated for Georgia PGA Teacher of The Year
- Former Whitefield High School Girls Golf Coach

Teaching Philosophy

J.R.'s teaching methods have been successful for players of all levels since 1985. His style is simple and direct. He is a firm believer in teaching the fundamentals of the golf set up and swing. Having the correct grip, stance, ball position, posture, and alignment will allow your swing to be more consistent and effective.

Background Check Provided by PGA of America

J.R. Ross 678-598-4653 JRRoss@teamrossgolf.com

